

Request Summer Electronic Benefits Transfer (Summer EBT) Fair Hearing Process

A parent or guardian can make a request for a fair hearing process if an online application was denied for the Summer Electronic Benefits Transfer (Summer EBT) program, a Summer EBT streamlined certification was not approved, an application was denied after the verification process or the Summer EBT money was collected back from the household. A household may not request a fair hearing through this process for any other program.

For Parents: What happens after you file your request for a fair hearing for the Summer Electronic Benefits Transfer (Summer EBT)?

You have asked for a Summer EBT fair hearing process to the Ohio Department of Education and Workforce. Now what happens?

1. The Ohio Department of Education and Workforce will decide if the request can have a hearing.

- The request must have been received by November 14, 90 days after the August 16 summer operation period end date.
- You cannot ask for a fair hearing for a denied application for a homeschool or virtual school student. The United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) is not allowing homeschool and virtual school student applications.
- You cannot ask for a fair hearing for a denied application submitted to a school. You must request a fair hearing from the school.
- You cannot ask for a fair hearing for a denied application if your child was approved for Summer EBT from SNAP, Ohio Works First (OWF), Medicaid or an approved free or reduced-price meal certification from a school. Your child may only receive one issuance of $120 this summer.

2. The impartial hearing officer is assigned.

- The Ohio Department of Education and Workforce will assign a case number to your request for a fair hearing and a hearing officer to preside over the hearing.

3. The fair hearing period.

- If you asked for an in-person hearing that date will be scheduled. The Hearing will be at the Ohio Department of Education and Workforce Building, 25 S. Front Street, Columbus.
- If you asked for a written hearing, the hearing officer will ask you to send in information to show why you feel your child should have received Summer EBT. This may include pay stubs or other documents to show your income or benefits.
- You will have an opportunity to present oral or documentary evidence and arguments supporting a position without undue interference;
- If in person, you will have an opportunity to question or refute any testimony or other evidence and to confront and cross-examine any adverse witnesses;
- The hearing will be conducted, and the decision made by a hearing official who did not participate in making the application decision or in any previously held conference;

- If in person, the decision of the hearing official will be based on the oral and documentary evidence presented at the hearing and made a part of the hearing record.

4. The decision.

- After the hearing, the hearing officer will issue a decision in writing. The parties concerned and any designated representative will be notified in writing of the decision of the hearing official. You may not appeal the decision.
- A written record will be prepared with respect to the hearing, which must include the challenge or the decision under appeal, any documentary evidence and a summary of any oral testimony presented at the hearing, the decision of the hearing official, including the reasons therefor, and a copy of the notification to the parties concerned of the decision of the hearing official; and
- A written record of the hearing will be preserved for a period of 3 years and must be available for examination by the parties concerned or their representatives at any reasonable time and place during that period.
